

The McIntosh Gallery Art & Travel Committee Presents:

Passion Over Reason: Tom Thomson and Joyce Wieland

Consider this exhibition to be a love letter to Tom Thomson and Canada – two subjects at the core of the 2017-year as we celebrate Canada’s 150th year and the centenary of Thomson’s death. Passion Over Reason will take a critical approach to our fascination with Thomson and show how today’s current culture of hipster or lumbersexual fashion, as well as cultivation of outsider creed, has confirmed what Wieland pointed to in the 1970s: Thomson is Canada. This exhibition will also allow for an account of feminist approaches to the topic of Canada in art then and now.

Also exhibiting: The Group of Seven Guitar Project, Arctic Echoes: Sound, Stories and Song in the New North, Size Matters: Steve Driscoll and Finn O’Hara
